While pulling, the rope broke and this struck the lad killing him almost instantly. A messenger was sent on horseback for a doctor and in his hurry overtaxed the horse which died.

ONE HUNG THE JURY

A Mistrial in the Jackson Murder Cases.

The Case Is Sent to Cynthiana for the Next Trial---Eleven for Conviction.

JURY DISCHARGED AT 9 A. M.

Jackson, Ky., June 19---The jury in the case against Curtis Jett and Tom White the alleged slayers of Attorney Marcum, was unable to agree, and Judge Redwine discharged them at 9 o'clock this morning. The case went to the jury before noon yesterday, and at 8 o'clock this morning the jury reported it could not agree, and was sent back to again try to reach a verdict. At 9 o'clock the jury again reported that it was unable to agree and was dismissed.

Judge Redwine then sent the case to Cynthiana for trial. It is understood the jury stood eleven for conviction and one for acquittal.

ST. JOHN'S DAY.

AN ELABORATE CELEBRATION TO TAKE PLACE AT BENTON.

A delegation of local Masons will probably go to Benton, Marshall county, next Wednesday, June 24, to assist in the celebration of St. John's day there. This is one of the most important days in Masonic circles, and the indications are for a large crowd at Benton.

Local Masons have made no arrangements for an elaborate or unusual celebration.

A NEW APPLICANT

Missouri Man Wants to be Superintendent of the Schools.

Many Teachers, Also, Are Sending in Their Applications for Positions.

SEVERAL CERTIFICATES ISSUED

There will probably be several applicants for the position of superintendent of the public schools of Paducah. The latest one to apply is Prof. J. Clarke, for fourteen years superintendent of the Henderson, Ky., schools, and for the past two years of the schools at Nevada, Mo. His application was received today. This, with the application of Superintendent Hatfield, will make four candidates for the job.

Mr. Arch Sutherland, secretary of the school board, is still receiving applications from teachers all over the country and yet there will be but few, comparatively to select from this year. Only the teachers who are in the schools now and those who have successfully stood the examinations will be voted on at the caucus Monday night. The total number of teacher applicants, who took the examinations is 24, 15 white and 9 colored.

The other applications from outsiders for the superintendency are Prof. Frank W. Cheek, of Paris, Tenn., and M. M. Fanghender, of Elkton, and the former has not definitely decided to enter the race but says he will come here to confer with the board relative to the position.

Certificates were granted to the following as teachers in the Paducah public schools, as a result of the examination, which has just closed:

High school---J. S. Ragsdale, Lone Oak; W. M. Alexander, Hopkinsville; W. H. Sugg, Dixey, Ky.; E. B. Payne Dixon, Ill.

Grammar Grade---Misses Ruth Harper, Catherine Thomas, Ollie Wilson, Happy Nell, Jessie Rocks, city; Alma Givens, Morganfield; Margaret Kirk, Louisville, Angelina Bowles, county. Primary grade---Misses Anna Larkin and Lucy Moore.

Certificates were given the following colored teachers:

Grammar grade---Minnie Lewis, C. W. Mason, Carrie Caruthers and George Robinson. Primary---Addie Howell.

NOTHING DONE

Jefferson Street Improvement Matter Investigated

An Opinion Is Expected at the Next Meeting of the Boards.

The improvement of Jefferson street from the terminus of the present gravel to 26th street will probably be acted on by the boards in a few days. An opinion as to the ownership of right of way is expected by that time.

The estimated cost of this improvement is about $18,000. From figures made by the engineers, it is estimated that the cost to the property owners will be $15,250.10, and to the city, $2,550, a total of $17,800.10.

Should the curbing and gutters be made one, however, it is estimated that the reduction will amount to sufficient to make the cost to property owners $13,851.90, and the city $2,330, a total of $16,181.90.

FIRST BLOOD DRAWN

The Baseball and Theatrical People All Dismissed.

It Is Held That They Are Merely Employees and Not Responsible.

AN APPEAL TO BE TAKEN

Justice J. H. Burnett this morning dismissed the warrants against all the baseball players charged with Sunday violations, and against the members of the Boston Ideal Opera company and the Ideal orchestra for giving a Sunday performance on the ground that they were all merely employees, and that the employers, the Baseball association and Manager J. E. English, had previously been fined for the alleged violation embodied in the warrants.

A large crowd was on hand when the cases were called at 10 o'clock at Justice Burnett's office at Fourth and Jefferson, many interested spectators being on hand in addition to the baseball players, theatrical people and other defendants.

Attorneys Flournoy & Harrison appeared for the Baseball association, Campbell & Campbell for Manager English, and Bagby & Martin for the Good Government league, which is supposed to be back of the movement to stop Sunday baseball and theatricals.

There was no dispute as to facts, the questions before the court being purely of law. Manager English, of the Casino, and the Baseball association had been warranted in Justice

ROBERTS' LOOM END SALE

We will make this the greatest money-saving sale on record. It shall surpass all our former efforts in bargain giving. Don't miss this grand bargain opportunity. It's the chance you seldom get. Get something for almost nothing.

LOOM ENDS Every factory and mill in the manufacture of their product accumulate Mill Ends or Loom Ends, as they are commonly called. These are short ends from the looms, 1-2 yard to 10 yards in length. These short ends are laid aside until the end of the weaving season; then they are tied up in great bundles and disposed of by weight, so much for a hundred pounds instead of so much a yard, the price always being less than the actual cost of the raw material they are made from. Loom Ends accumulate in all mills, therefore careful buyers by a persistent system of buying can secure loom ends of every conceivable kind of piece goods that is made.

A dollar saved is a dollar made. Let us save you enough dollars on your buying to enable you to get that something nice for the house that every housekeeper has been promising herself for so long, but thought she couldn't afford.

Loom Ends

Happy conditions prevail with us during this sale, because price and materials will both suit the consumer. The result will be quick sales and many of them. Satisfied customers make a sale go. Watch us satisfy a multitude.

REGULAR ROUTINE

And Little Else at Last Night's Aldermanic Session.

A Number of Ordinances Given Passage and Some New Ones Ordered.

WHISTLES TO BE SILENCED

The board of aldermen met last night in regular session with all members present.

The resignation of Mr. Harry Wallace, as superintendent of the city electric light plant, on account of ill health, was accepted but the date for the election of a successor left open.

The proposition of Mr. George Bernhard, of West Broadway, who owns property on the route to be taken in opening Fountain avenue from Washington street to Broadway was referred.

The action of the council in awarding the contract for putting in a steam heating and plumbing plant in the city hall to A. Franke, for $1,980.30, the work to be finished by October 25, was ratified.

E. O. Eaker was awarded the contract for improvements to an alley between Norton, Caldwell, Third and Fourth streets.

Mistakes in the assessment of property of Mr. W. D. Scott and Messrs. J. O. Earhardt and J. E. Powell were corrected.

Messrs. Charles Jennings, Charles K. Wheeler, James Rudy, H. Theobald, J. W. Lewis and Ed Thurman filed deeds to the city for west end property to be used in opening Fountain avenue. The dedication was received and filed.

The complaint of merchants who claim the Illinois Central road has refused to switch cars on the river front property, was referred to the railroad committee.

The report on the patent smoke consumer placed on the city electric light plant by Mr. Erv Berry, patentee, was read and filed. The report stated that the patent had proven a failure and the consumer was ordered taken off the plant immediately.

A petition from the property holders near Fountain avenue on West Broadway for a plank walk across a hollow leading to the fill, was referred.

The motion of Alderman Gus Singleton not to reconsider the granting of liquor license to John Bulger to open a saloon at 1615 South Fourth street as taken by the council, was adopted. The residents in that neighborhood do not want the saloon but the application had been regularly made and no complaint heretofore filed from the residents.

A receipt for the assessor's books from Auditor Alex Kirkland to Clerk Patterson was filed.

City bills amounting to $6,217.65 were presented and allowed.

First passage was given the compromise ordinance fixing the city treasurer's salary at $1,600 per year instead of $1,800.

The city attorney salary ordinance, fixing the salary at $720, was given first passage.

An extension of water mains on Elizabeth street from Tenth, was ordered.

A complaint from the owners of the steamer Charles B. Pearce, who claim they have been unable to secure leased wharf space on account of other boats crowding them out, was referred to the wharfmaster, S. A. Fowler.

The map made by Engineer W. W. Lyons for the city was turned over to City Engineer L. A. Washington to check up. This has been in dispute and the money for the work on it has never been paid Mr. Lyons.

The matter of improvement of West Jefferson to 26th street was referred to Solicitor Worthen to ascertain if the city has the right of way, and if not to bring condemnation proceedings to secure same.

A profile drawing for the improvement of South Tenth street was filed.

The board ordered drawing made for the extension of the sewerage system west from Ninth street and north to Trimble street from Broadway.

Liquor license was allowed Wiser and Edmonds at Ninth and Washington streets. The liquor license of J. H. DeBoe was transferred to A. H. Habeck. The application for liquor license at Eighth and Husbands streets was referred on account of protests.

Street Inspector Eaker was ordered to repair a street in Mechanicsburg which is reported crumbling away.

An ordinance for the improvement of Clements street was ordered drawn up and presented.

An investigation for the opening of a new street on the South Side, suggested by Mr. Jones, was ordered made.

The mayor was ordered to notify property owners who are building houses on the route to be taken by the city in opening Husbands from Third to Fourth streets, to discontinue work on the property as the city would soon condemn same.

On motion of Alderman Gus Singleton an ordinance was ordered brought in prohibiting steamboats and locomotives, mills, factories, etc., from blowing whistles in the city longer than is absolutely necessary.

Mayor Yeiser was authorized to purchase such gravel as necessary in the improvement and construction of streets.

On motion the council adjourned.

LATEST FROM METROPOLIS

"JACK THE HUGGER," MAKES HIS DEBUT.

Metropolis, Ill., June 19—Quite a bit of excitement has been aroused here by the appearance of "Jack, the hugger."

A party of young ladies were returning to their homes from a social and one of the party was turning into her home on Second street, when the intruder who was hiding behind a large chest, used by railroad hands, sprang toward her and tried to cut off all escape. The frightened girl broke and ran from him, giving a number of screams which awakened the neighborhood. He then made for his horse which was nearby and escaped. The girl was so frightened that she could not give a description of him.

Amon Price vs Steamer Dick Clyde.

In admiralty.

Whereas, a libel was filed in district court of the United States, at Paducah, Ky., on the 20th day of February, 1903, by Amon Price vs steamer Dick Clyde, her engines, tackle, apparel, furniture, etc., alleging in substance that said steamer was indebted to him in the sum of $30, that said steamer is justly indebted to him in said sum, that same has never been paid, and prays process against said steamer, and that it be condemned and sold to pay said claim with cost and expenses.

Now therefore, in pursuance to the monition under seal of said court to me directed, I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the said steamer Dick Clyde, or are in any manner interested therein, that they be and appear in the district court of the United States for the western district of Kentucky, in Paducah, Ky., on or before the 6th day of July, 1903, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, then and there to interpose their claims, and make their allegations in that behalf.

WANT SPECIAL TRAIN.

PADUCAH RED MEN MAY MAKE PART OF TRIP BY BOAT.

Paducah Red Men are very anxious to go to Murphysboro, Ill., to attend the big state meeting there of the Red Men July 4, but it is by no means certain yet that they will get a satisfactory rate.

The Illinois Central cannot provide them with a special train but offers a reduced rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip, which is not satisfactory. A project is now on foot to take the Dick Fowler to Cairo and there join the Cairo Red Men and take a special train over the M. and O.

The Red Men meet tonight and will probably discuss, if not settle, the matter.

CONSTIPATED BOWELS.

To have good health, the body should be kept in a laxative condition, and the bowels moved at least once a day, so that all the poisonous wastes are expelled daily. Mr. G. L. Edwards, 142 N. Main street, Wichita, Kan., writes: "I have used Herbine to regulate the liver and bowels for the past ten years, and found it a reliable remedy." Price 50c.

Written at Random.

Speaking of attempted suicides, a well known doctor stated yesterday that a large per cent of them were failures, and that quite a number were bluffs. The ignorance of the would-be suicide most frequently causes failure.

"The morphine route is a pretty sure one," declared the doctor, "provided you understand your business. Too much will not kill and too little will not kill, and if you are discovered before a certain time has elapsed you can be saved even when you have taken the proper amount."

"The carbolic acid route is rather uncertain. Many people imagine it is very horrible, but I don't know that it is much worse than any other. The pain is only momentary and then the person becomes unconscious, in which condition no pain can be felt. Carbolic acid is a very bad agency for a man who is or has been drunk to employ. Whiskey or alcohol completely counteracts carbolic acid. You can pour the poison all over your flesh and then quickly saturate the flesh with alcohol, and the carbolic acid has practically no effect. Alcohol therefore completely counteracts the poison when taken into the body in the same manner, if the patient is given it in time. In this way many a toper who wanted to die and tried the carbolic acid route was unsuccessful because the acid wouldn't hurt him enough to kill."

"A great many so-called attempts to suicide," declared the doctor, "are only bluffs, intended for a purpose."

A good joke is told on Mr. James A. Young, the talented young actor now in the city preparing to play Mephistopheles in "Faust." A few years ago he was playing in stock, and Mr. Wm. Malone, the well-known actor of the city, was in the same company. As every one knows, actors are very fond of joking one another.

They were playing "For Her Sake," and in one act the soubrette had to remark to Mr. Young, "Monsieur, the journey is a long one and fraught with danger," or words to that effect, to which his lines were, "I know it, I know it," in deep, impressive tones.

It used to be the delight of the comedian to stand near the two during the dialogue, and just as the soubrette would say "It is dangerous a journey," etc., the comedian would say so the whole company and some of the audience could hear, "Good Lord, Young, you're rotten."

The young actor would have to take up his next lines, which were "I know it, I know it," and the company would almost become convulsed with laughter. The comedian, who was a natural wag, kept it up so long that the manager had to cut out the lines, it is said, to keep the company from going to pieces.

Some of the most touching, tragic scenes are often changed in an instant by a timely word. Not long since a prominent citizen lay, as his friends thought, on his death bed, with some of his childhood friends gathered around to do what they could.

Finally one of them assisted the patient to turn over and remarked sympathetically, "That feels better, doesn't it?"

"You bet it does," replied the patient.

"Here, I thought there was no betting allowed in the Methodist church," rejoined the other with mock severity, and the dying patient began laughing and straightway improved. The pall of gloom that had hovered about the solemn company was quickly dispelled and the apt but innocent joke made everybody feel better.

J. G. Pearce of Micanopy, Fla., who is in the city on business, has an odd relic in the way of an old knife which was brought over in the Mayflower. It was presented to Mr. Pearce in Bridgewater, Mass., near Plymouth, in 1876 by a friend, one of whose ancestors had brought the knife from England on the Mayflower.

It has an odd-shaped handle and one rusty blade, with the point broken off.

TAX ON BABIES.

Extreme hot weather is a great tax upon the digestive power of babies; when puny and feeble they should be given a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, the children's tonic. It will stimulate and facilitate the digestion of their food, so that they soon become strong, healthy and active. 25c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

When a child complains of his eyes, how often the parent says, "It isn't much, he'll outgrow it." And so the child goes on, suffering with headache and gradually growing more nervous; suffering through life for early neglect. WHAT DOES HARGIS CARE?

County Judge Hargis, of Breathitt, ought to resign, but he probably will not. He is strongly entrenched behind a powerful faction which must be wiped out before the lawlessness it is responsible for can be suppressed. Judge Hargis and his followers seem to be in control of the county and having the home people afraid of them, they show a supreme contempt for what outsiders may think. Judge Hargis himself apparently has no respect for the law. He insisted during the Jett-White trial in telling something that had been objected to by the commonwealth and sustained by the court, and when asked if he didn't hear the objection, and hear the court sustain it, he defiantly replied that he did, but that he "thought it was my duty and my privilege to explain it, and I did so." This provokes from the Lexington Herald the following comment:

"Of course the action of Judge Hargis was a flagrant contempt of court as well as a brazen disobedience to law and defiance of the constituted authorities. But does anyone doubt the scornful contempt that Judge Hargis really has for the court and its judge? He knows what the state can only believe and suspect; and he felt perfectly free to exhibit any part of the complete contempt he felt for that court, and knew he could do it with entire safety. And why should he show any respect for law or any obedience to authority?"

"If the settled judgment of the citizens of Breathitt county has any foundation, the two persons in Kentucky for whom Judge Hargis must have supreme contempt are the governor of the commonwealth and the judge of the Breathitt circuit court."

Now that the noted murder trial, conducted almost under the mouth of cannon at great cost to the state, has amounted to naught, the question of what to do with Breathitt forces itself on the people of Kentucky with increased vigor and insistence. The soldiers cannot be kept there indefinitely to protect those who hold or have incurred the enmity of the desperate and bloodthirsty outlaws who shoot and burn, and when they are withdrawn it is difficult to anticipate what harrowing scenes may transpire. The only thing to do now is to hope for the best.

SIZED UP PRETTY WELL.

Captain W. J. Stone, for many years congressman from this district, at one time idol of the West Kentucky Democracy, but a victim some years ago of the machine, predicts a Republican victory in November. Captain Stone was knifed by some of the alleged Democrats in his own district for a rank outsider, and lost. He doubtless is aware that there are a great many other Democrats like him, who have been run over by the machine and will vote with the Republicans this year to cast the officeholders trust at Frankfort.

Captain Stone, who is visiting in Louisville, is quoted by the Louisville Herald as saying:

"I know of a great many Democrats who will vote the Republican ticket this fall in preference to the perpetuation of machine rule in Kentucky. They are thoroughly tired of the domination of the ring, and are determined to put a stop to it."

"This dissatisfaction is not found here in Louisville alone, but is widespread, and embraces nearly every congressional district in the state. In my own senatorial district, two committees are now claiming control, and a bitter fight is on. The new committee which, under the party law, will be entitled to the emblem, will nominate Senator Utley for re-election. The old committee will put forward Felix Grasty, of Cadiz.

"Similar conditions prevail in many other portions of the state, and the revolt has become general. I believe it will result in the election of the Republican ticket this fall."

Sense is one thing and sentiment another. While Captain Ewen has displayed rare and commendable courage in his efforts to wipe out lawlessness in Breathitt county, and has even lost his home by incendiarism, there is no reason the move which seems to be quite potent in the central part of the state to have a special session of the legislature called to reimburse him, should prevail. From a standpoint of sentiment the state and the people may be indebted to Captain Ewen, but there is no legal obligation due him for doing what any good citizen should have done, although it may be few possess the courage to do what he did. The best way to show Captain Ewen that his acts were appreciated, and at the same time encourage others in Breathitt to take a stand for law and right, is to make voluntary contributions, as people all over the state are doing. So far as the legislature is concerned, it is bad enough to have to tolerate the regular sessions, without having to put up with special ones.

It seems to be fashionable now for private citizens to get out and do what public officers neglect to do, and thus teach them a lesson. In several of the big cities recently the ladies got out with brooms and swept the streets because filth was allowed to accumulate on them and they were never sprinkled to settle the dust. In Chicago whole districts were cleaned from street to alley by the residents, both male and female, and now Bardwell, Ky., has gone the whole layout one better and the citizens residing on Front street a few days ago turned out and with shovel and pick dug a ditch and laid a water pipe.

Alleged to Have Broken Into Several

The police department this morning received a letter from chief of Police John Mason, of Memphis, asking them to arrest George Lay, colored, an all round thief wanted there on several charges. A negro was sent here to point him out, and gave a good description of him.

Officers Senger and Dugan found him near Fourth and Broadway and arrested him. One offense he is alleged to be guilty of is breaking into Goldsmith's and stealing a lot of fine silk underwear and other goods. He will be taken back at once.

WANTED TO KILL TWO

Stranger Hired at Fulton to Kill Two Councilmen.

The Alleged Plotter Had Been Arrested and Forced to Leave Town.

DEED WAS TO COST $100

A great deal of excitement has been created in Fulton over the discovery of a supposed plot to murder two of the councilmen of the South Side, Dr. R. N. Whitehead and Mr. W. W. Morris. Citizens from there today state that the excitement has about died down.

It appears there was a desperate character named Noel Hall who kept a very bad resort. The councilmen, among others, were instrumental in breaking up his joint and Hall was arrested and forced to put up cash bond of $500. His mother, Mrs. Annie Hall, was a day or two ago arrested also and fined for bootlegging, and in default went to jail at Union City.

The whereabouts of Hall cannot be ascertained just at present. He left Fulton several days ago and cannot be located, according to the Leader, which says further: Several weeks ago he employed a stranger to kill Dr. R. N. Whitehead and W. W. Morris, but the stranger's nerve failed him and he gave up the job. The stranger who was a Swede and whose name was never made known, walked into Dr. Whitehead's office one morning and told Dr. Whitehead that Hall had employed him to kill the doctor and Mr. Morris, but he was not in the murdering business and thought he would inform him of the plot to kill him.

He further stated that Hall offered him $100 to do the job and gave him a fine revolver and mask, which he afterward turned over to Dr. Whitehead. The mask was purchased at D. W. Hughes's by Hall and the story was generally credited. The same stranger approached Mr. W. W. Morris and told him the same story also told Judge Sellers of the affair.

While Dr. Whitehead and his friends were procuring evidence to arrest Hall and the stranger, the latter suddenly disappeared and has not been heard of since.

Hall had been conducting a house of ill-fame in South Fulton for some time and also selling whiskey since the saloons were voted out. Dr. Whitehead and Mr. Morris who are councilmen of South Fulton were instrumental in aiding the town in getting rid of the saloons and assisting in breaking up Hall's den and this invoked Hall's anger until in desperate straits he wished to thus get rid of these gentlemen.

Few have known of the plot to kill the men and of the circumstances connected with it, but the affair has not been made public on account of the men trying to obtain further evidence.

A MEAN TRICK

DR. JESSE GILBERT'S HORSE
DRIVEN AWAY FROM PARKS.

Somebody played a mean trick on Dr. Jesse Gilbert, the well known South Side druggist, yesterday afternoon and the frequency of such cases induces the police to think that there is some one in the city who makes it a business of driving horses away and leaving them hitched in some out of the way place after they are through using them.

Dr. Gilbert and wife went to the baseball game in their buggy, and left their horse hitched in the woods near the grounds, as scores of other people do. When they went to the place they had left it to drive home they found it gone. The matter was reported to the police, who searched all over the city for it, and finally found the rig in the alley between Fifth and Sixth street, from Harrison to Clay. The horse did not stray there as it was securely tied.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED

Mr. Sam Hubbard has been appointed a committee on arrangements for the big barbeque and harmony singing to be held in Arcadia July 4 by Rev. Cap Owen and other Methodists. Messrs. Graham and Houser were appointed a committee to arrange for the food and barbeque, and Dr. B. B. Griffith to secure tables.

ANTI-KISSING SOCIETY FELL BY WAYSIDE

Chicago, June 19—Well, it's all off. When the engagement of John W. McClinton and Miss Frances C. Lemery of Northwestern university was announced it was the deathblow to the anti-kissing society formed last winter in the Methodist institution, for the two were prime movers in the crusade against such foolishness as osculation.

The society at once disbanded, and it is rumored that several other important announcements may be expected within the few days remaining in the college year. Still, McClinton is said to have obtained his start by other means than those forbidden by the tenets of the society. Miss Lemery was a student in the Northwestern school of music, and began last winter to sing in the Emmanuel Methodist church of Evanston. McClinton at once became one of the pillars of the church. He sat but a short distance from the choir loft. From that time the courtship was carried on according to the following schedule: Winks, nods, handkerchief method, parasol and cane flirtation, fervent words, hearty handshakes.

But a few days ago McClinton arose in meeting and spoke right out. "It is all over," he said, "I hereby tender my resignation from this club. Its tenets are not suitable for a co-educational institution."

At once the society disbanded and other members got busy.

McClinton and Miss Lemery will be married, but the exact time has not been announced. She is to teach school in North Dakota. McClinton will spend his vacation in the northwest.

LEFT A NICE LEGACY BECAUSE SHE WAS KIND

Chicago, June 19—Twenty-five thousand dollars is a pretty good price to get for a smile and a kind word, but it is the reward that has just come to Bonnie Burnham, a school girl of Whiting, Ind.

When she was attending the convent of Mercy at Pensacola, Fla., she went walking one day with her mother. An old man with white hair sat on a bench in the sun. He was Thomas Duggins, and he had no relatives and no one to care for him. The girl smiled as she passed and asked him if he was enjoying the sunshine. He was attracted by the girl's sunny disposition and asked her parents to be presented to her.

He became a friend of the family, but when the Burnhams came north—they lived in Aurora, Ill., then—he did not answer the letters that Miss Burnham wrote to him.

She was much surprised yesterday to get a letter from Attorney Steele, who wrote in his will he had bequeathed $25,000 to "Bonnie Burnham, who was kind to me."

Miss Burnham has sent an agent to Florida to secure the legacy. The girl lives at 20 Sheridan avenue, in Whiting. She will use part of the money to secure a college education. She has literary aspirations.

WANTED TO BE WAITER,--NOT A MILLIONAIRE

Kokomo, Ind., June 19—Bertha Ellis, a waitress in the Schwenger restaurant, has fallen heir to a fortune estimated at $40,000. A week ago an agent of the estate of Charles C. Mobery of Anderson county, Tenn., advertised in a Kokomo paper for missing heirs of Mobery, who died in 1886, leaving a landed estate of $125,000. This revealed the identity of Mrs. Ellis, a widow, and two brothers, Clem and Rufus Landrum, of 171 East High street, this city. They are great grandchildren of Mobery, though they had never heard of their ancestor. The mother of the heirs, Mrs. Catherine Landrum, is still living, and will receive a share of the big estate. Word has been received from the trustee of the estate acknowledging heirship, and the heirs will soon be in possession. The heirs are all day laborers, and the sudden fortune is a big surprise to them.

A SPLENDID REMEDY.

Neuralgic pains, rheumatism, lumbago and sciatic pains yield to the penetrating influence of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It penetrates to the nerves and bone, and being absorbed in the blood, its healing properties are conveyed to every part of the body and effect some wonderful cures. Mr. D. F. Moore, agent Illinois Central railway, Milan, Tenn., states: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment for rheumatism, backache, etc., in my family. It is a splendid remedy. We could not do without it." 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

TWO TO BE DROPPED

The K. I. T. Will be Six Club
League.

New Decatur Not Admitted and Vincennes Must Fall
Out.

REORGANIZATION EFFECTED

The result of the K. I. T. league managers' meeting yesterday afternoon at the B. Weille store was a reorganization of the league. The towns of New Decatur, Ala., will not be admitted, and Vincennes, Ind., will be dropped making a six town league composed of Paducah, Henderson, Hopkinsville, Ky., Cairo, Ill., Jackson and Clarksville, Tenn.

This move had been contemplated some time and was the result of bad gate receipts in Vincennes and the distance of New Decatur.

Those in attendance yesterday were Managers Gorman, of Jackson; A. O. Kleeman and W. E. Beach, of Clarksville; F. H. Bassett, of Hopkinsville; Ben Weille and Sam Jackson, Paducah; Manager Webber and President Thompson, of Henderson, and W. F. Farnbaker, of Cairo.

After the matter of dropping these two cities was settled an election of officers resulted: President, Dr. Irvin Thompson, of Henderson; vice president, J. S. Gorman, of Jackson; secretary, W. F. Farnbaker, of Cairo; treasurer, Richard Rudy, of Paducah.

It was decided to start a new schedule on the 22 and on that day Cairo comes to Paducah. Each team will start with 1,000 again and it is thought more interest will be manifested. All batting records, fielding records and perfect transcripts of the game will be kept by official scorers in each city. The result of the games batting, fielding and every point of the game will be reported to Secretary Farnbaker, of Cairo, who will keep the batting averages, etc.

A new schedule was presented to the managers by Farnbaker which was accepted and will be effective on the opening day of the new organization. All games heretofore played will be styled exhibition games.

Mt. Vernon, Ind., wanted to come in and also did Columbia, Tenn., but neither city was considered, being too far off the route, as were Vincennes and New Decatur.

The official umpires will be put on next Tuesday. The league managers have all put up their forfeit and the success of the league to the end of the season is assured. It is not known who the umpires will be, but one will be from Clarksville and one from Jackson. There will be three of them.

This afternoon Hodges will pitch for Paducah. None of the new players expected have yet arrived, but all are expected to be here by tomorrow night.

Was Loved by Daniel O'Connell.
The death in Dublin of Miss Rose McDowell in her eighty-first year removes a link between the present generation and Daniel O'Connell. Miss McDowell in the closing years of Daniel O'Connell's life was a young lady of extraordinary talents and beauty. She captivated O'Connell and had the refusal of his hand and heart. The rejection of his suit is said to have weighed heavily on O'Connell and to have been one of the proximate causes of the illness to which he succumbed.

Large Catches of Fish.
Catches of fish were never larger on either side of the Atlantic. More than 50,000,000 of herrings were taken in nets in one haul of the boats off the English coast. If the prices of cattle on the ranges, and in the stockyards are kept so high that the poor may be compelled to banish beef from their tables, the salt water crops are so profuse and abundant that they will go a long way to supply a substitute.

A HEALTHY COUPLE

AN OLD SOLDIER OF 90 HAD SOME COFFEE EXPERIENCE.

An old soldier's wife described her coffee experience as follows: "My husband and I have been accustomed to the use of tea and coffee for a very great many years and we were very fond of the coffee.

"Some time ago we received from a dear friend in St. Louis a Christmas box that included a package of Postum. I prepared some without reading directions and my husband said:
'O nonsense this tastes just like the crust water that was one of the luxuries they allowed to invalids 80 years ago.' Then I looked up the directions, made the Postum as it should be made and we both found it delicious.

"My husband is a broken down soldier and was a dyspeptic and suffered from severe headaches but from the time we commenced to drink Postum we have not taken a cup of tea or coffee. During the hot weather we have eaten no meat, depending for food upon Grape Nuts. My dear husband's headaches have disappeared since we left off the coffee and began Postum, and I find myself mentally stronger and much better able to concentrate my thoughts than for several years past. Husband has a good appetite now and nothing disturbs his stomach.

"I believe that when mothers come to pay more attention to their children's diet there will be more health and happiness in the world and in domestic life generally. Little by little this change must come.

"Yours very sincerely for all that pertains to health and happiness. Use our names if you wish." Names furnished by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

This letter is in the hand writing of the old lady herself and there are many people half her years who can not write half so good a letter. The case is one of remarkable vitality and apparently the only ill of their old age were those due the coffee drinking. These disappeared when Postum was used in place of coffee.

NOT CERTAIN.

MR. GRAHAM WILL BUILD IF COST IS NOT TOO GREAT.

Mr. Charles Graham, the saloon man, who has had plans for an opera house at Ninth and Court drawn, stated this morning that it was not settled yet that he would build the theater.

In speaking of his plans this morning he said:

"I have not decided definitely that I will build and it all depends on the price the work will cost. I have a certain price set and will not go over it. If the plans are too elaborate and the building will cost too much, then I will not build at present. I think Paducah is large enough to support a variety-vaudeville show, which I intend to run exclusively if I build, and will engage a first class orchestra, ten pieces, and think I will be liberally petronized. The entrance to the theater will be on Ninth street and I will cater to the best people of the town."

Mr. Graham further stated that he intended to have the show house completed by fall if he decided to build at all and would be ready for business by the winter season.

tices to our patrons which were misleading and intended to intimidate our subscribers.

In addition to these circulars the People's company are sending their sol-licitors to our subscribers, demanding that they fill out the "removal notice" and making false statements to induce the subscribers to sign, using the dictatorial position of some of the merchants as a basis.

We only ask that our subscribers investigate the statements of these sol-licitors thoroughly, and not to act hastily as we guarantee our subscribers a complete, satisfactory local and long distance service. We ask that our subscribers not be frightened by the published list of exclusive independent users, as the list is not as unanimous as it seems, and many of the published merchants and professional men have not accepted the decision of the committee.

This same method was used against our company at Jackson, Tenn., but was a complete failure, and we predict it will be the same in Paducah, as it is against the principles of our American, freedom-loving people to be forced into any action which they do not wish to take.

Since the decision of this committee was made known last winter, this company has added more new, bona-fide, paid subscribers than the independent company has been able to secure "free of charge" since they entered the field over a year ago, and this list indicates that the people do not approve of such methods, and that this company is pleasing and satisfying the people.

We are furnishing service to more than 1700 subscribers who have free connection over the entire county and are in direct connection with millions of other subscribers over our system of toll lines covering the entire country.

We are furnishing service to more than 1300 of these subscribers who use our service EXCLUSIVELY and refuse to accept service of the other company even when offered free of charge.

We are furnishing our subscribers with a modern, up-to-date, rapid, satisfactory service and will continue to do so.

We desire to thank our subscribers for their patronage and to assure all we will allow no other company to equal our service either in quality or quantity.

Several other matters of importance

tutional the ordinance requiring a license for distributing advertising in the city, fixing H. S. Clarke, agent

Jaws

Tightly Locked From Nervous Spasms.
Physicians Could Not Prevent Fits.
Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure My Wife.

Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure has been successfully tried in thousands of cases of nervous disorders, but never has it made a better record than when used in the treatment of fits or spasms. Thousands of testimonials prove this, and in nearly every instance the writer has stated that the fits ceased after the first dose of Nerve Cure was given. The statement is repeated in the following:

"Seven years ago my wife commenced having spasms or fits and I called in my home physician and he said she was paralyzed. He rubbed her with salt water and gave her calomel and she eventually got some better, but in a short time she had another attack. She was confined to her bed for three months and the doctor could not help her. She had fits frequently, some times very severe. Her hands would cramp so we could not open them and she finally got so her jaws would become locked. Finally I saw the doctor who doing her no good and ordered a bottle of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve Cure. She received so much benefit from the first bottle that I got some more. She has taken a number of bottles but has never had a fit since taking the first dose. She also thinks very highly of Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and is never without them. If there is any way of making this testimonial stronger do so because of the good the Dr. Miles Restorative Nerve Cure did my wife."—Wm. Y. Allen, P. M., Elkville, Miss.

PALE ALE AND KY-LO

AGAIN DECLARED NON-INTOXICATING BY THE COURT.

A case of much interest was tried before Circuit Judge R. E. Maiden of Dresden, Tenn., in which W. D. Fraizer, of Martin, Tenn., was charged with selling Laevison's Kyo and Pale Ale, which were claimed to be intoxicating; but after testing these drinks and hearing the evidence of a number of witnesses, and the proof showing them to be non-intoxicating, the jury dismissed the case, deciding that it was not a violation of the local option law to sell these beverages.

The decision is of much importance to A. M. Laevison & Co., of this city, and their many customers in this state and Tennessee.

The game was very much of a wrangle, four umpires being put in on various occasions. The ball playing was bad.

HENDERSON STILL WINNING.

AMATEURISH GAME.

Paducah Pulled Out of the Hole in Miraculous Manner.

New Decatur, Ala., made her appearance for the first time in Paducah yesterday afternoon at the Wallace park grounds and after seemingly having a dead cinch on the game lost it by a score of 13 to 10. It was not a well played game after the fourth or fifth inning, when the visitors pulled off a pyrotechnic display that jarred the natives considerably. Both pitchers were hit well, fourteen hits being made off the visitors and fifteen off Wilson. About 600 were in attendance.

Girard's fielding was a feature of the game. The Paducah men had been changed around until all were in strange places, while the visitors had been on the road for twenty-four hours, and this probably accounted for the poor article of ball that was put up.

In the eighth inning the fans were sent to their feet by a grand rally on part of the Indians, who stacked up eight runs, batting the pitcher out of the box. The visitors found it impossible to score again.

FIRST INNING.

New Decatur—McCawley rapped for center field fence and went to second. Potts spun a grass-cutter to left field and made two sacks also, scoring McCawley. Edmonson went out from pitcher to first. Hendrix touched it for a single, scoring Potts, and stole second, going to third on wild throw to second. Burnum struck out. Sallard fanned. Two runs.

Paducah—Clifford went out from short to first. Langsford went out from third to first. Perry struck out. No runs.

SECOND INNING.

New Decatur—Payne hit to left and made three bags on fielder's error. Nolley struck out. Nickens hit to short and got first on error. McCawley hit to third and Payne was thrown out at home, Nickens stealing second and scoring on wild throw. Potts went out to first base. One run.

Paducah—LeCompte flew out to left. Edmonds hit safe to center. Richardson hit over third base, advancing Edmonds. Girard hit safe to center, scoring Edmonds and Richardson and getting third on wild throw to catcher. Fitzgerald struck out.

Wilson hit safe to second and scored Girard. Clifford went out from short to first. Three runs.

THIRD INNING.

New Decatur—Edmonson struck out. Hendrix knocked a pop-up to pitcher, which he muffed. Burnum struck out. Sallard flew out to Fitzgerald. No runs.

Paducah—Langsford hit safe to left. Perry hit to right for two bags. LeCompte struck out. Edmonds hit to second and Langsford was thrown out at home. Perry scored on passed ball and Edmonds stole third. Richardson fanned. One run.

FOURTH INNING.

New Decatur—Payne hit a slow grounder to third and got first because it was too slow to handle. Nolley flew out to Clifford. Nickens hit to short and Payne was forced out, Nickens being called out for Payne's blocking second baseman, Richardson. No runs.

Paducah—Girard went out from second to first. Fitzgerald went out on pop-up to second. Wilson went out on a fly which was cinched by second baseman.

FIFTH INNING.

New Decatur—McCawley was called out from short to first. Potts flew out to Girard. Edmonson lined out grass-cutter to left. Hendrix hit safe to center, advancing Edmonson to third. Burnum hit to pitcher and Edmonson scored on wild throw to first. Sallard went out on foul fly to Girard. One run.

Paducah—Clifford struck out. Langsford hit by pitched ball, Girard walking to first for him. Perry went out on grounder to first. LeCompte hit to center, scoring Langsford's runner. LeCompte died trying to beat the ball to second, retiring side. One run.

SIXTH INNING.

New Decatur—Payne hit safe to center. Nolley hit safe to third. Nickens sent a grass-cutter to center, scoring Payne. McCawley struck out. Potts hit to second and died on first, but Nolley scored. Nickens scored on passed ball. Edmonson hit to short and made second on bum throw to first. Hendrix went out from second to first. Three runs.

Paducah—Edmonds hit to left and made two bases. Richardson struck out. Girard hit by pitched ball. Fitzgerald struck out. Wilson walked. Clifford hit to third and died at first, leaving bases full. No runs.

SEVENTH INNING.

New Decatur—Burnum struck out. Sallard hit to center and died at second by having foot off. Payne hit pop-up, which LeCompte muffed. Nickens hit to left, scoring Payne and making two bags. McCawley went out from short to first. One run.

Paducah—Langsford went out on easy fly to second. Perry went out from second to first. LeCompte went out from second to first. No runs.

EIGHTH INNING.

New Decatur—McCawley hit to center and was called out for not touching first base. Potts went out from short to first. Edmonson hit to short and made first. Hendrix knocked ball over the fence, making a home run and scoring Edmonson. Burnum hit to second and made first. Sallard went out from third to first. Two runs.

Paducah—Edmonds lined a good one to right for three bags. Richardson hit to left for two bags, scoring Edmonds. Girard singled to right, advancing Richardson. Fitzgerald hit by pitched ball. Wilson walked. Richardson scored. Clifford hit to left and Girard scored. Fitzgerald scored on passed ball. Nickens, the pitcher, was taken out and Sawyer put in the box. Langsford hit safe to first. Perry struck out. LeCompte flew out to center and Wilson scored. Edmonds hit one to center for three bags, scoring Clifford. Richardson singled to left, scoring Edmonds. Girard went out on pop-up to pitcher. Eight runs.

NINTH INNING.

New Decatur—Payne went out on fly to Girard. Nolley singled by hot one to left and stole second. Sawyer fanned. McCawley was at the bat when Nolley was caught between bases and put out.

TODAY'S LINE-UP

TODAY'S LINE-UP.

Paducah—Clifford, catcher; Hedges, pitcher; Perry, first base; Edmonds, second base; LeCompte, third base; Langsford, short stop; Murray, left field; Richardson, center field; Girard, right field.

New Decatur—Sallard, catcher; Burnum, pitcher; Hendrix, first base; Potts, second base; McCawley, third base; Edmonson, short stop; Nolley, left field; Payne, center field; Nickens, right field; Fitzgerald, substitute.

NOTES.

The first Paducah boy who puts the ball over the fence and makes a home run will get at least $15. Five of it is cash, $5 in a new hat, a month's barbering free at Daddy Root's and some fine whiskey, which he will of course have no use for.

If the league is to play out the season Paducah should quit experimenting and get a strong team. There are some good men now in the team, but they are played out of position. The people here want a good team and no more foolishness.

The New Decatur boys have a coacher who jumps about like a jack-in-the-box and shouts like a foghorn. He is worth going to see if you don't care to see the Alabama boys get beaten.

It is noticed that yesterday the spectators did not roast the home boys for bad plays, but instead shouted, "That's all right, old boy." This is the proper way to do. It helps the boys.

Richardson, the new second baseman, looks like a ball player, but he hasn't had a chance to do much yet.

Willie LeCompte is still the best all-around ball player and one of the most genteel and popular in the league.

This talk about Street is hot air. We need no more catchers.

The league ought to put in official umpires, and do it quick.

Girard gets all that come his way out in left field.

We're patiently waiting for that old Cairo club.

We'll have a double-header Sunday.

Don't trust to luck on a last made by ordinary measurements, but use a last constructed on an "X-ray" photograph.

GRAUSTARK

...By...
GEORGE BARR McCUTCHEON

Copyright, 1901, by Herbert S. Stone

"They are betrothed," said she, with an effort. There was a dead silence, broken by Lorry's deep groan as he turned and walked blindly to the opposite side of the room. He stopped in front of a huge painting and stared at it, but did not see a line or a tint.

"You don't mean to say she has accepted?" half whispered Anguish.

"Nothing less."

"Thank God, you are only a countess," he said tenderly.

"Why—why—what difference can it make—I mean, why do you say that?" she stammered, crimson to her hair.

"Because you won't have to sell yourself at a sacrifice," he said foolishly.

Lorry came back to them at this juncture, outwardly calm and deliberate.

"Tell us about it, pray. We had guessed as much."

"Out there are his people—the wretches!" she cried vindictively, her pretty face in a helpless frown.

"Today was the day, you know, on which he was to have his answer. He came and knelt in the audience chamber. All Graustark had implored her to refuse the hated offer, but she bade him rise, and there, before us all, promised to become his bride."

"The greatest sorrow Graustark has ever known grows out of that decision. She is determined to save for us what her father's folly lost. To do this she becomes the bride of a vile wretch, a man who soils her pure nature when he thinks of her. Oh, we sought to dissuade her—we begged, we entreated, but without avail. She will not sacrifice one foot of Graustark to save herself. See the triumphant smiles on their faces—the brutes!" She pointed maliciously to the chattering visitors in the hall. "Already they think the castle theirs. The union of Graustark and Axphain—just what they most desired, but we could not make her see it so!"

"Is the day set?" asked Lorry bravely after a moment's silent inspection of the dark browsed victors.

"Yes, and there is to be no delay. The marriage contract has already been signed. The date is Nov. 20, the day on which we are to account to Boharoz for our war debt. The old prince's wedding gift to Graustark is to be a document favoring us with a ten years' extension," she said scornfully.

"And where is she to live?"

"Here, of course. She is Graustark's ruler, and here she insists on abiding. Just contemplate our court! Overrun with those Axphain dogs! Ah, she has wounded Graustark more than she has helped her."

"There was nothing more to be said or done, so after a few moments the Americans took their departure. The countess bade them farewell, saying that she must return to the princess."

"I'll see you tomorrow," said Anguish, with rare assurance and the air of an old and indispensable friend.

"And you, Mr. Lorry?" she said curiously.

"I am very much occupied," he murmured.

"You do wrong in seeking to deceive me," she whispered as Anguish passed through the door ahead of them. "I know why you do not come."

"Has she told you?"

"I have guessed. Would that it could have been you and not the other!"

"One cannot be a man and a prince at the same time, I fancy," he said bitterly.

"Nor can one be a princess and a woman."

Lorry recalled the conversation in the sickroom two weeks before and smiled ironically. The friendly girl left them at the door, and they passed out of the castle.

"I shall leave Edelweiss tomorrow," said one, more to himself than to his saw the call your attention to her, and she saw you refuse to look back. I don't think that you should have hurt her." Lorry did not respond, and there was no word between them until they were outside the castle gates.

"You may leave tomorrow, Lorry, if you like, but I'm going to stay awhile," said Harry a trifle confusedly.

"Haven't you had enough of the place?"

"I don't care a whoop for the place. You see, it's this way: I'm just as hard hit as you, and it is not a princess that I have to contend with."

"You mean that you are in love with the countess?"

"Emphatically."

"I'm sorry for you."

"Think she'll turn me down?"

"Unless you buy a title of one of these miserable counts or dukes."

"Oh, I'm not so sure about that. These counts and dukes come over and marry our American girls. I don't see why I can't step in and pick out a nice little countess if I want to."

"She is not as avaricious as the counts and dukes, I'll wager. She cares nothing for your money."

"Well, she's as poor as a church mouse," said the other doggedly.

"The countess poor? How do you know?"

"I asked her one day, and she told me all about it," said Anguish.

CHAPTER XVI.

A CLASH AND ITS RESULT.

"I FEEL like spending the rest of my days in that monastery up there," said Lorry after dinner that evening. They were strolling about the town. One was determined to leave the city, the other firm in his resolve to stay. The latter won the day when he shrewdly if explosively reminded the former that it was their duty as men to stay and protect the princess from the machinations of Gabriel, that knave of purgatory. Lorry, at last recognizing the hopelessness of his suit, was ready to throw down his arms and abandon the field to superior odds. His presumption in aspiring for the hand of a princess began to touch his sense of humor, and he laughed, not very merrily, it is true, but long and loudly, at his folly. At first he cursed the world and every one in it, giving up in despair, but later he cursed only himself. Yet as he despaired and scoffed he felt within himself an ever present hope that luck might turn the tide of battle.

This puny ray grew perceptibly when Anguish brought him to feel that she needed his protection from the man who had once sought to despoil and who might reasonably be expected to persevere. He agreed to linger in Edelweiss, knowing that each day would add pain to the torture he was already suffering, his sole object being, he convinced himself, to frustrate Gabriel's evil plans.

Returning late in the evening from their stroll, they entered a cafe celebrated in Edelweiss. In all his life Lorry had never known the loneliness that makes death welcome.

The cafe was crowded with men and women. In a far corner sat a party of Axphain nobles, their prince, a most democratic fellow, at the head of a long table. There were songs, jests and boisterous laughter. The celebration grew wilder, and Lorry and Anguish crossed the room and, taking seats at a table, ordered wine and cigars, both eager for a closer view of the prince. How Lorry loathed him!

Lorenz was a good looking young fellow, little more than a boy. His smooth face was flushed, and there was about him an air of dissipation that suggested depravity in its advanced stage. The face that might have been handsome was the reflection of a rone, dashing, devilish. He was fair haired and tall, taller than his companions by half a head. With reckless abandon he drank and sang and jested, arrogant in his slight merriment. His cohorts were not far behind him in riotous wit.

At length one of the revelers, speaking in German, called on Lorenz for a toast to the Princess Yette, his promised bride. Without a moment's hesitation the prince sprang to his feet, held his glass aloft and cried:

"Here's to the fairest of the fair, sweet Yette, so hard to win, too good to lose. She loves me, God bless her heart! And I love her, God bless my heart too! For each kiss from her wondrous lips I shall credit myself with 1,000 gavvos. That is the price of a kiss."

"I'll give 2,000!" roared one of the nobles, and there was a laugh in which the prince joined.

"Nay! I'll not sell them now. In after years, when she has grown old and her lips are parched and dry from the sippings I have had, I'll sell them all at a bargain. Alas, she has not yet kissed me!"

Lorry's heart bounded with joy, though his hands were clinched in rage.

HOT WEATHER WEAKNESS.

If you feel fagged out, listless and lacking in energy, you are perhaps suffering from the debilitating effects of summer weather. These symptoms indicate that a tonic is needed that will create a healthy appetite, make digestion perfect, regulate the bowels and impart natural activity to the liver. This, Herbine will do, it is a tonic, laxative and restorative. H. J. Freegard, Proprietor, Grand View Hotel, Cheney, Kan., writes: "I have used Herbine for the last 12 years, and nothing on earth can beat it. It was recommended to me by Dr. Newton, Newton, Kan." 50c at Du-Bois, Kolb & Co.

Correct Summer Clothing The Kind That Won't Lose Shape

Did you ever notice how quick thin clothing loses its shape? It's because it is not made right. We overcome that fault in our Correct Summer Clothing—we've had it made a new way. The coats have a full shoulder, with hair-cloth stiffening down the front, that keeps them from breaking or losing shape. The pants have cuff bottoms, concealed buttons and felt straps, the cloth is thoroughly shrunk which overcomes bagging at the knee. There's no clothing like it for fit and style in Paducah. LIGHTS SOON

REPAIRS ON MACHINERY REQUIRED LONGER THAN EXPECTED.

Acting Superintendent Keebler, of the city light plant, states that he expects to have the lights turned on by tomorrow night. The city has been in darkness for over a week, owing to repairs to the machinery, and Superintendent Keebler said today that this was because some of the machinery had to be made to order at the foundry and could not be finished as quickly as anticipated when the plant was shut down.

Mr. J. H. Roberts and Miss Mary Lou Roberts returned last night from a visit to Paducah. Miss Lula Reed of Paducah is the guest of Misses Marguerite and Clara Park.—Mayfield Messenger.

ST. LOUIS WILL COME.

AN EXCURSION TO BE RUN HERE LATER ON.

The City of St. Louis, which was expected to give an excursion under the auspices of the Elks last night and could not get here on account of being unable to pass under the Cairo bridge, will come up the Ohio, as she has contracts at Evansville, Henderson and other places to fill. She will not stop at Paducah on her way up, but a contract has been signed with the Elks here for an excursion to run shortly and the people may count on being able to make the trip on the handsome steamer.

About $500 has been spent by the boat for advertising from Cairo to Evansville and she is coming up to make some of it back. She cannot run at St. Louis now and expects to get a good business here.

BURIAL IN LIVINGSTON.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN KANSAS AND REMAINS BROUGHT HERE.

Likens, a man about 80 years old, arrived this morning at 1:30 from Liberty, Kan., where he died, and were reburied on the packet by Undertakers Nance and Spaulding to Carversville, Livingston county, where he formerly lived. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Patterson have returned from visiting in Henderson.

Theatrical Notes.

"The Grand Duchess" was presented last night at the Casino to a large and fashionable audience, many society people being in attendance. The opera is one of the most dashing ever presented here and made a decided hit. Miss Carrie Godfrey assumed the role of the Grand Duchess, the principal figure on the stage at all times, and showed her power as a prima donna more completely than heretofore.

"The Grand Duchess" will be presented again Sunday night, the closing of the opera season here this summer, and doubtless a large crowd will be out to hear it. Last night Miss Marie Oakland sang a song and was encored nearly a dozen times, the curtain having to be rung down and a new start made in the third act. She has made herself very popular with the music-loving public of Paducah.

Manager J. E. English of the Casino theater will give a benefit performance for Capt. B. J. Ewen Sunday night at the theater at Wallace park, and expects a large crowd.

INTERESTING CASE

SUIT FOR POSSESSION OF A FARM COMES UP.

Attorney W. A. Berry went to Benton this morning as attorney in the case of J. F. Putnam against Joseph Jones, for possession of a $1,500 farm which is alleged to have been secured by the defendant by unfair means. It is alleged that the defendant induced the plaintiff to deed over the farm while the plaintiff was demented. This case is an interesting one and is creating much comment in Benton. It is about the most important case on the civil docket.

Mr. D. L. Adams returned from Mayfield this morning.
